Barclays plc

Increased globalisation has led to more firms becoming multinational companies. Barclays plc is a multinational banking company. Its headquarters are in London. One of the bank's core values is integrity – it tries to act fairly, ethically and openly in all it does.

Barclays plc's personal banking division provides banking services to the general public. These services include providing a place to save and borrow money, as well as a place where customers can obtain advice on financial matters. In 2020 Barclays plc had 24 million UK personal banking customers.

Banks are typically among the first industries to embrace technological advances. Barclays plc has been able to make use of e-commerce by selling loans, savings accounts and insurance through its websites. The bank has also invested in computer technology to provide online banking services to its customers. Online banking services allow customers to access their bank accounts on the Internet. Customers can carry out banking transactions, pay off credit cards or deposit savings 24 hours a day, worldwide. Online banking is one of the fastest growing areas of Internet activities, see Fig. 1, below.

Ricardo Costumes and Props (RCP)

Alessia and Natalia own Ricardo Costumes and Props (RCP). The business operates as a partnership. RCP makes a range of costumes and props that it sells to UK and EU theatres, schools and amateur dramatics groups.

Last year, RCP's costumes and props were used in two very successful films. RCP's reputation grew rapidly and its revenue increased from £1600000 in 2019 to £2000000 in 2020. More financial data for RCP in 2020 is shown in Table 1, below.

	2020
Revenue	£2000000
Cost of sales	£500000
Salaries	£1300000
Rent	£100000
Other expenses	£50000

Table 1

Despite being profitable, RCP's bank overdraft is getting bigger every month. Alessia and Natalia realise that they need to carefully consider RCP's cash flow position.

Alessia and Natalia need to update the laser cutter and 3D printer they use to make some of the props. The total cost of these machines is likely to be over £100000. Alessia and Natalia are unsure how to finance the purchase of the new machinery. Natalia has suggested they try and sell the old machines and use the money to buy new ones. Alessia thinks it might be better to gain extra capital by finding a new partner to join the business.

(a)	(i)	State one reason why cash is important to a business.
		[1]
	(ii)	Explain one use of a cash flow forecast in a business.
		[2]

(b) (i)	Identify two variable costs which a business may incur.

(ii)	Calculate RCP's net profit for 2020.
	Show your workings.
	Answer £
	Allower 2	[3]
(iii)	Analyse one way Alessia and Natalia could use the data shown in Table 1 to their net profit margin.
		[3]

(c)	(i)	Analyse one advantage to RCP of selling its old machines to finance the purchase of the new machinery.
		[3]
	(ii)	Analyse one disadvantage to RCP of selling its old machines to finance the purchase of the new machinery.
	(ii)

(iii)	Recommend whether RCP should finance the purchase of the new machinery by selling its old machines or by taking on a new partner.

Pukka Pies Ltd

Pukka Pies Ltd is a family-owned business with approximately 360 employees. It makes a range of high-quality savoury pies, including steak, chicken and mushroom, and chicken balti, in batches at its factory in Leicester, England. Pukka Pies are sold in more than 4000 food stores nationwide as well as in sports stadiums, fish and chip shops and cafés across the country.

Three of Pukka Pies Ltd's key values are recruiting people who are ambitious, delighting customers with quality pies, and building trust with suppliers through food safety. Each of these values helps the business meet the requirements of consumer law.

The success of Pukka Pies Ltd is affected by many factors, including its logistical and supply chain decisions. Pukka Pies Ltd procures the ingredients for its pies from businesses across the UK and overseas; consequently its supply chain is long. Nevertheless, all of these ingredients need to arrive in good condition and, therefore, its logistics are time-critical. Unemployment levels also have a significant impact on Pukka Pies Ltd.

Pukka Pies Ltd considers its environmental impact across all aspects of business activity. It has already replaced some of the non-recyclable plastics used in its packaging with alternatives that can be recycled. In addition, none of the company's waste goes to landfill.

(a)	Identify one way consumer law protects consumers.
	[1]
(b)	Analyse the benefits to Pukka Pies Ltd of using a batch production process.
	[31

(c)	Ana	llyse one way falling unemployment might influence recruitment at Pukka Pies Ltd.
